DREYFUS CASE AGAIN THALHIMER'S

Great Excitement During the Discussion in Chamber.

Denied That He Had Ever Sought to Conceal Anything, and Sald That General Pellieux Had Rogretted Writing the Letter.

(By Associated Press.) PARIS, April 6.—The Dreyfus affair was brought up in the Chamber of Deputies to-day by M. Jaures (Socialist) during a discussion of the validation of the election of M. Syveton (Nationalist Republican).

M. Jaures assorted that M. Syveton had attacked the Republican group or the ground that they were the agents of foreigners, but the speaker proposed to show that the real friends of the foreigners were those who, during four "established their case through a falsified signature of a foreign Emperor years, "established their case through a faisified signature of a foreign Emperor."

This alluded to the letter of the German Emperor, which is said to have been introduced into some of the papers in the Dreyfus case.

CHAMBER WROUGHT UP.

M. Jaures repeatedly mentioned the German Emperor by name and accused M. Millevoye, the Nationalist leader, of using the supposed letter of the German Emperor, the non-existence of which had been established, in his speeches for election purposes. These remarks wrought up the chamber to a great pitch of excitement, but the climax came when, turning to a new branch of subject, M. Jaures read a letter dated August 31, 1898, written by General Pellieux to the Minister of War, and asking to be placed on the retired list, owing to the Dreyfus case, In this letter, as read by M. Naires, General Pellieux said:

"Can you any longer have confidence either in subordinates or in chiefs, who have made me a dupe and made me work with forged documents?"

This was an allusion to the forgery by Colonel Henry, and M. Jaures went on to assert that the letter had been hidden from the country and had not been communicated either to the Court of Cassation or to the court-martial which tried Dreyfus at Rennes.

M. Brisson declared that he, at the date tion or to the court-martial which tried Dreyfus at Rennes.

M. Brisson declared that he, at the date of the letter, was Premier, and the government had no knowledge of the letter. He accused M. Cavignac, who was Minister of War at the time, of not informing the government of its existence.

M. Cavignac denied that he had ever sought to conceal anything, and said the letter did not form part of any dosider in connection with the Dreyfus case. Jeneral Pellieux, he affirmed, afterwards regretted having written it. M. Cavignac was hooted by members of the Left.

A message from President Palma was read at the opening of the session. President Palma mas read at the opening of the session. President Palma expresses the hope that the question of incorporating into the reciprocity treaty all the provisions of the Platt amendment will soon be settled, and adds that after this has been done it will seem unnecessary that the Platt amendment should remain any longer a part of the Constitution.

President Palma points out that the cash balance at the treasury amounts to $2,235,000, and advises that it should always be kept at $1,500,000, to prepare for emergencies.

Thousands to View Landslide.

Thousands to View Landslide.

The vicinity of Chimborazo Park was visited Sunday afternoon by thousands of people, who viewed with undisguised interest the great changes in the topography wrought by the recent strange sinking of the earth. Curious crowds examined minutely the slope to the east of the park and the gradual descent to the line of the York River Railroad, all of which has been affected by the strange subterranean disturbance. Many comments were heard, yet not one commentator undertook to account for the unexplained convulsion of nature.

This pare Wine of Cardul is a home medicine which helps the girl through the trials of coming womanhood. This pare Wine safely brings the wife through the trials of motherhood, and finally smooths the way of the middle-aged woman through the critical period known as the change of life. There is no medicine so much needed in the home as Wine of Cardul, because it quickly relieves the pains of the young girl, and completely cures the long-standing troubles of the woman of any age. City men are down-town within easy call of doctor and drug store, but women, who spend most of their time at home, can appreciate having a bottle of Wine of Cardul within reach continually. A woman can never tell when headaches, bearing-down pains or painful irregularities will overtake her.

FEMALE WEAKNESS

Wine of Cardul is a popular medicine among millions of women for this very reason. It is popular because it cures without a doctor's examination or a surgeon's operation. It relieves women of painful and irregular menatruation, bearing-down pains, distressing inflammations, weakened nerves and the agonies of ovarian troubles. It brings children to barren homes and makes childbirth easy for suffering mothers.

Do you feel all worn out after a little exertion? Are you nervous and irritable? Are you sleepy in the day and restless at night? If you answer "yes" to any of these questions, Wine of Cardul taken in the privacy of your home would give you inestimable benefit.
